FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOTICE:
TOWN OF LOXAHATCHEE GROVES TOWN HALL OFFICES IS OPEN!

Loxahatchee Groves, FL - October 11, 2024 – The Town of Loxahatchee Groves is pleased to announce that the Municipal Office at Town Hall has reopened and resumed normal business hours. Residents are welcome to visit Town Hall for assistance during regular operating hours.

All inspections by the Building Department will resume as normal. We appreciate the community's patience as we work to ensure the safety and well-being of all residents and properties.

Public Works and Town staff are currently conducting a thorough damage assessment and clean-up throughout the Town. Teams are working diligently to restore normalcy, address storm damage, and ensure that public spaces remain safe and accessible for all.

Additionally, we are in the process of organizing community outreach services to assist residents during this time. Further information about these services will be provided in subsequent correspondences.

We want to emphasize that despite these adjustments, the Town of Loxahatchee Groves is open for business. We are committed to supporting our community through this recovery process and appreciate the continued support and understanding of our residents.
